CENTRAL INSTITUTE OF HIGHER TIBETAN STUDIES

SARNATH, VARANASI

2001

Central Institute of Higher Tibetan Studies (CIHTS), Sarnath, Varanasi was established in 1967 at the wishes of His Holiness the 14th Dalai and India's first Prime Minister, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. CIHTS was primarily established with an ethos to educate the émigré youths of Tibet and the students of the Indian Himalayan belt who had lost the opportunity of going to Tibet for advanced studies and religious discourses in Buddhism after the 1959 episode.

CIHTS was operated as an autonomous organization under the administrative control of the Department of Culture, Government of India with 100% financial support from the Government of India. After considerable growth of its infrastructure and academic excellence, it was declared as a "Deemed to be University" in 1988.

The objectives of CIHTS are—to preserve the Tibetan culture and tradition; to preserve ancient Indian sciences and literature preserved in the Tibetan language, but lost its original; to offer an alternate educational facility to students of Indian border areas who formerly availed the opportunity of receiving higher education in Tibet; and to accomplish gains of teaching and scope of research in traditional subjects in a framework of the modern university system of education with the provision for award of degrees in Tibetan studies.

Keeping in view the importance of publishing research works on Buddhology and Tibetology in accordance with the objectives of the Institute as one of the principal means for propagating and promoting the Buddhist and Tibetan studies, the Institute introduced its own publications. Initially CIHTS commenced its publishing works with two booklets of seminar papers in 1972 but regular publication work was started in 1983.

CIHTS publishes mainly the research materials of restoration, translation, original writings and critically edited works in the subject field dominated by Buddhist and Tibetan studies. The publications are brought out in Sanskrit, Hindi, Tibetan, Pali and English or in multi-lingual form which may consist of two or more languages as mentioned above.

The main source of the materials for CIHTS publications is the research works of the Projects launched by the Institute itself. But it also accepts certain similar kind of research works by eminent scholars. Most of the books published so far are of having high standard and great research value for advanced studies in Tibetology and Buddhology.

At present, CIHTS is publishing the books under eight series, and in addition, volumes of "Dhih": A Rare Buddhist Texts Research Journal, and Tibetan-Sanskrit Dictionary. The titles of the series are as under:

- Bibliotheca Indo-Tibetica Series
- The Dalai Lama Tibeto-Indological Series

- Prof. L. M. Joshi Commemorative Lecture Series
